Mike Zarum, Buckeye Brook Coalition

C. Additional Guests in Attendance during Displays:

Sally Johnson
Joseph Masino, Governor's Office
Rep. Carol Hagan McEntee

From approximately 3:00 until 4:00, RI Rivers Council and Watershed Council displays were on view inside and outside the State Library and staffed by RIRC members and watershed council members.

At approximately 4:00 the General Assembly started their session. The RI Rivers Council was recognized in RI General Assembly by Senator Susan Sosnowski for the Senate and Carol Hagan McEntee for the House. Several RI Rivers Council members and representatives of state-designated watershed councils were welcomed into each General Assembly chamber, identified by name, and thanked.

Call to Order: Dr. Berounsky called the meeting to order at 4:45 pm

Review and Approval of February 13, 2019 meeting minutes: A motion was made to approve the minutes and seconded.

Because of the late hour of the meeting, many reports were tabled until next month, unless there was something necessary to report this month.

Reports by RIRC Representatives on State Committees:

Narragansett Bay Estuary Program: As reported by Walt Galloway, written report submitted by Julia Bancroft:

Our SNEP Request of Proposals is out for Watershed Restoration Projects (large-scale implementation and small-scale planning and design) within the greater bi-state Narragansett Bay watershed with funding from the United States Environmental Protection Agency's ("U.S. EPA") Southeast New England Program ("SNEP"). The selected projects will further implement the Narragansett Bay Estuary Program's Comprehensive Conservation and Management Plan ("CCMP") as it relates to the SNEP vision and purpose. There are up to $606,000 in federal funds available for this RFP. Pre-proposals are due April 2, 2019.

Our new Program Director, Mike Gerel, has been with us for about a month now. He is planning on coming to the next RIRC meeting and looks forward to meeting everyone. In the meantime, if you would like to schedule a meeting with Mike individually, please contact him directly at mike.gerel@nbep.org to set up a meeting.

Chair's Report:

As mentioned at last month's meeting, Elise Torello is stepping off the RI Rivers Council at the end of this meeting. She will continue on as RIRC webmaster until we find someone else, which we are thankful for. It was noted that Elise developed the multi-colored RI state map that has all our RIRC state-designated watershed councils on it (the map is on our brochure, tri-fold display, and new banner-map). She also developed our new brochure. And Elise had taken on the role of "treasurer", submitting monthly financial reports, which Alicia Eichinger will now do. RIRC presented Elise with a book of RI photographs, "Rhode Island Ocean Sites & City Lights: A Collection of Photographs" by Stephanie Izzo, inscribed with a note of appreciation for all she has done for the RIRC. Because of her love for chickens, Elise also received the book: "Hello, Rhode Island!" by Martha Zschock. Elise will be missed!

Adjournment: Motion to adjourn by Mr. Galloway. Seconded by Paul Gonsalves. Meeting adjourned at 5:10.

Note added: The RIRC's Annual meeting made the front page of the Narragansett Times with an article by Allie Lewis (based on an interview of Chair Berounsky by Phil Cozzolino) on March 22, 2019
